

APPEAL INSTRUCTIONS

In order to file an appeal, you must first submit a request for reconsideration and be denied by a hearing examiner. However, if you filed a Motion to Vacate and your Motion was denied, you must file an appeal directly to the Traffic Adjudication Appeals Board; you may not request reconsideration.

ONCE A REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OR MOTION TO VACATE HAS BEEN DENIED, WHAT CAN BE APPEALED?

1. Parking Tickets
2. Photo-Enforcement Tickets
3. Moving Violations
4. The revocation or suspension of your driver license or driving privileges ordered by a hearing examiner at a hearing
5. Denial of a Motion to Vacate
6. Denial of a Request for a Limited Occupational License.

TIME PERIOD FOR FILING AN APPEAL

All appeals must be filed within 30 calendar days of the denial of your request for reconsideration or the denial of your Motion to Vacate.

TRANSCRIPTS OF THE HEARING

A transcript is a written version of your recorded hearing. You must order two (2) copies of the hearing transcript if you are appealing an in-person moving violation hearing or you are appealing the suspension/revocation of your driver license at an in-person hearing.

No transcript is required if you are appealing an in-person parking or photo-enforcement ticket or if you are appealing a mail adjudication decision.

You must pay a $50 transcript deposit at the time you file your appeal. If the cost of the transcript is less than your deposit, the difference will be refunded. If the cost is more than your deposit, you will be billed for the additional amount, and you must pay this amount within 10 calendar days of the billing date. If the additional amount due is not paid, the appeal will be dismissed without consideration by the Appeals Board.

HOW TO FILE AN APPEAL

Complete the appeals application on the back of this form and submit it along with the fine and penalty, the $10 appeal fee, and the $50 transcript deposit (if applicable) to PO Box 77411, Washington, DC 20013, Attn: Appeals Office. All fees must be paid by check or money order made payable to the D.C. Treasurer. If the Board reverses the Examiner's decision, all payments are refunded.

You must pay all fines, penalties and appeal fees. If you fail to make any of these payments, or if a check in payment of these fees is dishonored, the appeal will be dismissed without consideration by the Appeals Board.

WHAT THE APPEALS BOARD CONSIDERS

The Appeals Board considers the ticket, testimony, and evidence presented at the original hearing, the hearing transcript, and your brief written statement describing the basis of the appeal. Personal appearances before the Appeals Board are not permitted. The Appeals Board will not consider any evidence which was not previously presented to the hearing examiner. The Appeals Board may take up to two years to decide your case.
